

The United States Official Investigation of baking powders, made under authority of Congress by the Chemical Division of the Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., recently completed, shows the Royal Baking Powder to be a cream of tarter powder of the highest quality, pure and wholesome, and superior to all others in strength, leavening power, and general usefulness. a29.

THE ELLIOTT CASE.

Inyo County People Ask for His Release.

The Inyo (Cal.) Independent says: Tax-payers representing $410,000 of assessed property signed the petition that was presented to the Supervisors on last Monday evening asking for a dismissal of the Elliott case.

This petition was offered for signatures at but three places in the county—namely, Bishop, Lone Pine and Independence—and very little effort was made to obtain signers.

We believe that every signer of that petition believes Elliott guilty of murder, but every one of them believes that it is not possible to convict him of murder in Kern county.

The same paper contains the following: Last Monday Sheriff Kidred had a letter from Elliott in reference to the approaching trial. Elliott asks to be excused from writing at greater length as a carriage was in waiting to take him to Bellevue. He would take a trip up to Inyo county to see his friends if he could secure a good team and be sure of getting back to Bakersfield in time for the trial. The impudence of this infernal scoundrel is almost beyond belief.

HITCH IN THE FOOT RACE.

The Hawthorn Men Claim the Forfeit Money.

There is a strong possibility that the foot race will not be run, as the backers of Rosenthal claim the forfeit money on the grounds that $1,000 was not deposited in the bank on Saturday last. The articles name Saturday as the day but Furlong insists that Dr. Reed afterwards made a verbal agreement that the money could be put up Monday or Tuesday. He deposited $1,000 on Monday, but the Hawthorne men claim the $500 on the ground that the money was not up in time.

Furlong has attached the money and a law suit is in prospect.

The best way would be to waive technicalities and run the race.

THE STREETER CASE.

The Old Man Now Relieved to be Innocent.

There is now sojourning in the State Prison a man named Streeter who was sentenced to imprisonment twenty years for the crime of incest.

He came from Elko county and at the time of the trial the feeling in the county was very bitter against him.

Since the trial facts have come to light which tend to prove his innocence and an effort is being made to secure his pardon. The principle witness against him was his daughter who swore that he was the father of her child. It is now alleged that he was the victim of a conspiracy put up on him by his two daughters and a young man who was paying attention to one of them.

Streeter is worth nearly $100,000 and very close in money matters. It is claimed by his friends that his two daughters got an idea that in his will he had made no provision for them and they determined to force him to do so. He states that when he was first charged with the crime, the man who was paying attention to his daughter came and offered for $5,000 to swear that the prospective child was his.

He declined to pay any money as he felt that he was innocent. Then his other daughter sided with the first and swore against him.

His wife, a young woman, sided with her husband and refused to believe in his guilt. He was so certain of his ability to prove his innocence that he refused to retain a lawyer.

Since his incarceration the man whom he alleges made him the offer to swear to the paternity of the child for $5,000, married the mother of the child and the two have gone East.

It would hardly seem that such a marriage would have taken place if the husband considered the charges against his father in-law true.

Another curious feature of the affair is that he really had made ample provision for both his daughters in his will, but after their action he revoked it and made a new one, cutting them off with nothing.

SHORT STORIES.—Fred Somers, who used to edit the Argonaut has established a monthly magazine in New York called Current Literature. In about a year it has taken rank in public favor over the old periodicals, and is now one of the best magazines properties in New York. Encouraged by the success of this venture Somers now publishes a little magazine called "Short Stories," which is beyond question the daintiest publication of the kind ever attempted. The cover, paper and type attract the cultured eye at once. One accustomed to cheap and trashy works would pass it by at once as too rich for him, but the man or woman with the genuine scent for a good thing would pounce on it quickly. It contains twenty-five stories for twenty-five cents, and every story in the lot is worth the price of the whole. Out of the great mass of stories one must hunt the old, turgid magazines a long time for a gem, but in this case Mr. Somers does the hunting and the reader gets the benefit of his work. In this sort of literature he has unquestionably struck the high water mark. Ask your bookseller for it.

QUIETLY SINKING.—A company of New Yorkers are quietly sinking a shaft in search of the precious metals on the hill a short distance west of the Steamboat Springs hotel. They have a double compartment shaft down—mostly through hard granite—two hundred and twenty feet. Their faith is founded on the croppings which extended from the east side of the creek. They have come in contact with some water, taking out about two barrels per hour. The purpose is to sink from one to two hundred feet deeper, then drift for the ore body.

Better settle up your delinquent dog tax.

A LUCKY MAN.

T. F. Holloway Draws $7,500 in the Denver State Lottery.

Mr. T. F. Holloway, who is owner of a newspaper stand at the southeast corner of Second and Walnut streets, has suddenly come into considerable wealth, because he was fortunate enough to hold ticket 45,350 in the Denver State Lottery.

Mr. Holloway has invested in other lotteries before, but this is his first trial in the Denver lottery. A week before the monthly drawing of the Denver State Lottery, he invested 50cts. for a whole ticket, and on the 14th of this month received notice that he had won the first prize.

A few days after this Mr. Holloway received 375 twenty-dollar pieces by the Wells, Fargo Express Company.

Mr. Holloway is greatly elated over his good fortune, but is as yet undecided in what manner he will dispose of it.

The Denver State Lottery is comparatively a new institution in this city, but has shown its integrity and its fair method of doing business by the prompt manner in which the claim of Mr. Holloway was met.

The claim of Mr. David Oliver, of 1723 Charlotte street, Kansas City, Mo., who held ticket 25287 and drew $1,250 as the third capital prize, has also been promptly met.

The tickets are in wholes and halves and are sold at 50cts. and twenty-five cents. Mr. B. F. Rhodus, Denver, Colo., is the resident agent of the Company at the headquarters.—Philadelphia Item, May 28, 1890.

For stylish millinery, neat work, and low prices go to Mrs. Maud Stine's. A fine assortment of both trimmed and untrimmed hats. Children's fine hats a specialty. Sailor hats in red, navy blue and brown, 50 cents each. Ladies sun hats 50 cents each. No trouble to show goods.

Fond pride of dress is sure a very curse.

Ere Fancy you consult, consult your purse.—Franklin.

To appear well is not necessarily to practice extravagance.—The ladies of Carson can all acknowledge that the prevailing low prices, of Olcovich Bros., Summer fabrics, is one reason why they find it to their advantage to buy their dry goods of that well-known firm. For anything in the shoe line call at Olcovich Bros. j3

WHAT ON EARTH—Is the reason people will not, cannot, or do not see any difference in cheap nostrums put up by Cheap John houses or irresponsible parties at enormous profits, rather than take a medicine of world wide reputation and one that is giving universal satisfaction at equal price? No medicine in the world is giving such unparalleled satisfaction for purifying the blood as BEGG'S BLOOD PURIFIER & BLOOD MAKER, and every bottle that does not do its work, will cost you nothing.—W. H. Chedie Druggist.

HOW CAN PARENTS—Allow their children to cough and calmly say: "Oh! its only a little cold," and keep giving them cheap medicines, until they are down with lung fever or consumption, when they can be so easily relieved by using BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP? It has no superior and few equals. W. H. Chedie, Druggist

COUGH! AND COUGH! AND COUGH!—What in the world is the reason you will cough and keep coughing and still keep trying inferior medicines when BEGG'S CHERRY COUGH SYRUP will positively relieve your cough at once? This is no advertising scheme, but an actual fact, and we guarantee it. W. H. Chedie, Druggist.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup should always be used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays the pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty five cents a bottle.
